

Potter Cup Information

The 18th annual Potter Cup will be held at Haverford Middle School on Wednesday, May 18, 2022 from 1:00 pm – 5:00 pm. (Rain date is Friday, May 20, 2022.) This event is planned for all the students of Paxon Hollow and Haverford Middle Schools. The following events will take place during the Potter Cup:

1:00	Opening Events
1:30	Boys' Lacrosse and Baseball	(Tentative Schedule)
2:45	Girls' Lacrosse and Softball
4:00	Track Meet

The school that wins three or more of these events earns the "Potter Cup." There will also be food, dance, fun, lots of games and prizes.

The proceeds from this event will be donated to Alex's Lemonade Stand, an organization dedicated to pediatric cancer research. Since its inception, our schools have donated over $534,000 to Alex's Lemonade Stand and pediatric cancer research. The theme for this event is "Kids Helping Kids".

In order to assist with transportation, we will be offering the following Potter Cup Package: (All students, including athletes must purchase the package in order to attend the event.)

- Transportation to and from Haverford Middle School via Marple Newtown School District buses.
- An official 2022 Potter Cup T-shirt
- Wristband used for unlimited games
- Food tickets (Water ice, drinks and pretzel)
- Face painting/face tattoos
- Donation to Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation

Cost: $25.00

The following forms: permission slip/package registration and a check must be received by Friday, April 8, 2022.

Looking for a way to contribute?
How about sponsoring our "Road Trotters"?

To help increase our contribution to Alex's Lemonade Stand, a few of our finest have "volunteered" to run from Paxon Hollow to Haverford Middle School. Our trotters include: Mr. Wendler, Mr. Weiss, and other brave souls. This year the Road Trotters dedicate their run in honor of Blaise Davis. Blaise, our 6th grade guidance counselor's son, sadly lost his battle to cancer in March 2019. If you would like to make a contribution via a pledge for our trotters, complete the form below and send it in to your child's first period teacher. Thank you!
